Matter Title

Smith vs. Johnson

Matter Description

Case Summary:

The plaintiff, John Smith, has filed a civil lawsuit against the defendant, Michael Johnson, alleging breach of contract and seeking damages of $250,000. The contract in question pertains to a business agreement between the two parties regarding the sale and distribution of goods.

Parties Involved:

Plaintiff: John Smith

Defendant: Michael Johnson

Plaintiff's Attorney: Jennifer Lee, Lee & Associates

Defendant's Attorney: Robert Adams, Adams Law Firm

Key Dates:

Initial Review: March 15, 2024

Discovery Deadline: May 20, 2024

Pre-Trial Conference: June 10, 2024

Trial Date: July 15, 2024

Case Details:

Allegations: The plaintiff alleges that the defendant failed to deliver the agreed-upon goods within the stipulated timeframe, resulting in significant financial losses.

Defendant's Response: The defendant denies the allegations and claims that the delays were due to unforeseen supply chain issues beyond their control.

Key Evidence:

Contract agreement signed by both parties

Email correspondence regarding the delivery schedule

Financial records showing the plaintiff's losses

Witness testimonies from business partners and suppliers

Current Status:

The case is currently in the discovery phase, with both parties exchanging relevant documents and preparing for depositions.

Notes:

The court has encouraged both parties to consider mediation to resolve the dispute out of court.

The plaintiff's attorney has requested an extension for the discovery deadline due to the volume of documents to be reviewed.
